

Halton's Developmental Pathways

Services for Young Children in Halton Region

18-month well-baby visit

Health Care Provider completes Rourke Baby Record (RBR-ON) informed by parent-completed LookSee (formerly the Nipissing District Developmental Screen or NDDS)

No Developmental Concern

No developmental concerns on the LookSee or RBR-ON

Developmental Concern

One or more no's on the LookSee or other developmental concern on the RBR-ON

Provide information to all parents/caregivers about programs that support healthy growth and development.

RBR determines areas of concern

Community programs to support healthy growth and development, and parenting.

EarlyON Child and Family Centres

- Oakville Parent-Child Centre
905-849-6366
- Reach Out Centre for Kids (Burlington)
905-632-9377
- Milton Community Resource Centre
905-876-1244, ext. 210
- Links2Care (Halton Hills)
905-873-2960

HaltonParents (Halton Region)

Municipal libraries

Use the Coordinated Referral Form for Healthcare Providers to make referrals to any of the programs below. Some programs do not require a referral. For information to direct families, see the reverse side of the referral form.

Referrals are recommended for the following programs:

- Infant and Child Development
- Behaviour Services
- Inclusion Services
- Childcare Subsidy
- Healthy Babies, Healthy Children
- Children's Mental Health
- ErinoakKids (link provided to their unique referral form)

No referral is required for:

- EarlyON Child and Family Centres
- HaltonParents, including parenting programs
- Halton Prenatal Nutrition Program
- Prenatal Education
- Adjusting to Parenthood
- Neighbourhood Groups
- Nutrition support

For more information about working with families of toddlers or preschoolers, visit halton.ca.